Hinman Straub Welcomes Two New Principals

Albany, NY... Hinman Straub is pleased to welcome two new experts to its team of legislative, regulatory and policy professionals.

Ralph D. Spaulding is a member of Hinman Straub's Life Insurance Department. Spaulding joins as principal to the firm after nearly three decades at the New York State Insurance Department where he specialized in policy and regulatory matters relating to individual and group annuity products as well as group life insurance.

John Saccocio is a principal to the firm and a member of Hinman Straub's Labor and Employment Departments. Saccocio previously served as Counsel to the School Administrators Association of New York State. Saccocio has returned to Hinman Straub once again bringing his experience and expertise on a wide range of legal issues. For more information on the new principals, please visit Hinman Straub's Professionals page.
